

VOL. LXXXII.-NO. 204.

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, MARCH 23, 1915 .- Copyright, 1915, by the Sun Printing and Publishing Association

PRICE TWO CENTS.

BANKER KILLS WIFE; TAKES HIS OWN LIFE

Howard Boocock. Treasurer of Astor Trust, Commits Crime in Home.

SHOOTS HER WHILE

than an apparently slight at dinner, and officers of the trust company said that Mr. Boook did not have any financial diffi-

Ie went to the library on into the ties on a perilous course of three hundred feet.

papers. He remained there Springfield, jumped as the engine left and Kenyon, 9, had been sent to bed hour before. There was no quarrel before dinner that reached the bars of the maids, but at the table one of the maids noticed that both Mr. ck and his wife seemed rather n the parlor alone. Mr. drank his coffee and smoked while in the dining room and then ent up to the library. For some time, the maids until cut short by a re-er shot, followed quickly by two

For some time Mary did not see e of her cerise evening gown half territorial rights for the sale led by the plane, under which she automats gas lighter in wh cook's cries brought the other also was arrested. cooks cries brought the other also was arrested. As and they immediately began telephone for help. The first call is sent to Mrs. Henry P. Davison, of the member of J. P. Morgan & It was said that Mrs. Davison was first one to reach the house after shooting occurred. In attempt to get the family physical attempt to get the family physical properties of the second properties of the second properties.

and Dr. Norman Ditman of thed, but both were dead when he to the house. He said that Mr. ock must have died almost instantly Inspector Boland, with acting ter of the East Sixty-eighth street station, and detectives arrived at ouse within a short time after the them to do save to try to puzzle out why it happened.

f the first things that caught

Inspectator Boland's eye when he entered the room where the bodies lay "Pilgrim's Progress, ng open, face down, on a table furnish a motive. So far none

Boococks was very happy and, cen esident of the Astor Trust Com-Before he boarded a train for York he said that he knew of no for the act of the company's Recently Operated Upon.

. Boocock returned to work about ago after undergoing an opera-intestinal trouble," said Mr. "The operation was performed four weeks ago. Mr. Boocock had very nervous since he came back. make it too plain that the y the State Banking Department ound to be correct in every way. sure Mr. Boocock could not have in 1997 and was said to be highly med by the directors. He was a zoon. This ameba is a unicellular orzoon of the Riding, University, Piptock, Racquet and Tennis and Yale found that it bore certain relations to 1907 and was said to be highly Mr. Boocock was 39 years old, the the germs habitant to stagnant water.

son of Samuel W. Boocock, a director of the Brooklyn Trust Company, living at 87 Joralemon street, Brooklyn. Howard Boocock married Adele Ken-yon, oldest daughter of George Kenyon of the Hotel Margaret.

of the Hotel Margaret.

Mr. Boocock was graduated from Yale in the class of 1900 and married Miss Kenyon in Brooklyn. They had a summer home in Englewood, N. J. Mrs. Boocock was a niece of Clarence Kenyon, head of C. Kenyon & Co., Brooklyn manufacturers of clothing. Besides her father, George Kenyon, and her mother, Mrs. Belle Hyde Kenyon, there was in the family a younger sister, Lois Kenyon, who married James Shaw of Brooklyn.

Clarence Kenyon when informed by THE SUN last night was much shocked and said that he had no knowledge whatever of any domestic troubles which might have led to the murae.

whatever of any domestic troubles which might have led to the murde:

BORDEN CUTS OFF DAUGHTER.

SHE SITS AT PIANO WIII Not Pay Debts of Divorced Wife Either, He Publishes. Los Angeles, March 22. - Miss Ra> mona Borden, daughter of Gail Borden. the wealthy New Yorker, must hereafter horne, U. S. A., was recalled from his staying with Mr. Rockefeller previous to get along without her father's aid. ishly to the young woman, tightened his strings to-day and inserted the following in the Los Angeles news-signed will not be responsible for any Borden or by Miss Ramona Borden.

BOSTON EXPRESS WRECKED.

Cars Jump Track: Na: rowly Eaton via the Boston and Albany road, was wrecked to-night at Washington Bridge, Conn., when the engine and three cars left the rails. All that saved the train from destruction down reading until it was time to dress for dinner, which was served at 7:30 clock.

Both Seemed Excited.

The children Mollie 11 years old.

The children Mollie 11 years old. The children, Mollie, 11 years old, The eastbound passenger track will blocked for a considerable portion of the

'SILVERWARE' ROGERS CAUGHT.

Accused of Swindles He Will Be Brought Here From Milwaukee. MILWAUKE, March 22.-Silverware

Rogers, one of America's most famous swindlers, was caught here to-night by went up to the library. For some time swindlers, was caught here to-night by Mrs. Booods the the plane playing Federal official on a reindictment and the strains of the music were heard obtained in New York on March 12 after a search of three years. In that Haggerty, the cook, ran up- tions, the Government charges, between stairs and saw Mr. Boccock lying on $56,000 and $100,000. He had offices in the floor with the revolver beside him. New York at 1218 Broadway and also in Boston, Providence, Worcester, Jersey in Boston, Providence, Worcester, Jersey City, Poiladelphia and Chicago.

Rogers was accused here of selling New York, who posed as his wife. She be best to recall Major Langhorne.

East Porty-eighth street was finally Five Year Sentence for Bank Wrecker

E. P. Metcalf of Providence Begins Term-J. W. De Kay of New York Gets Stay.

PROVIDENCE, March 22.—Edward P. Gen. Wood.

Metcalf. ex-president of the Atlantic Efforts were made by officials to conwater forty feet into the air.

There was a found to the air. The same Hoocock, march as the purpose.

Children Not Awakened.

Children Not next Metcalf, ex-president of the Atlantic laren to be awakened, and they of know until they awake this to know until they awake this get that anything has happened to ather and mother.

Were indicted for misappropriation of $219,785. All were arrested but Henry to the war beginning to day, as he has never been located, cally at the War Department to-day, Metcaif and John W. De Kay were found though there have been intimations in ther and mother.

to Boston made by Mr. Boocock guilty, the former on ten counts.

While Metcalf received practically morning from which he Sunday morning, from which he del late Sunday right, is being instated by the police in the hope that

CURE FOR RICGS'S DISEASE.

Experiments at Johns Hopkins Disclose Treatment Necessary. BALTIMORE, March 22.-Experiments at Johns Hopkins Hespital looking to a cure of pyorrhea—Riggs's disease— have reached a stage that reveals the source of the disease is known and what form of treatment is necessary. The experiments at the Hopkins we begun at the instance of the United States authorities, who had found a par-

States authorities, who had found a par-tial cure for the disease.

Microscopic examinations have been made of the materials collected about the diseased tooth sockets and the insock had been connected with vestigators have found a clue to the lated from the lower region the proto-

ATTACHE LAID TO ENGLAND

Light Shed on Mystery of Major Langhorne's Hasty Return From Berlin.

ENSOR OBJECTED TO PRO-GERMAN REPORTS

rived in this city on Sunday from Ber-

Government

SECRECY IN CASE. Efforts Made to Concest Major

George T. Langhorne, U. S. A., whose bombs at her. The second officer says: recall from his post as Military At- "I saw the aeroplane on Sunday this afternoon.

Langhorne's Arrivat.

sentences of fifty years, and by the police in the hope that turnish a motive. So far none a disclosed.

The stockholders were cleaned out and assessed double their holdings, while the depositors lost more than 30 per constant to have Major Langhorne return to have Major Langhorne return to Washington at this time and give the boat and landed to have Major Langhorne return to Washington at this time and give the set of this important information on military operations.

The Concord tant information on military operations from which he days not believe, however, that the War Department is glad to have Major Langhorne return to Washington at this time and give the boat and landed to have Major Langhorne return to be a still affoat.

The Concord tant information on military operations.

in Germany.

It is learned that Major Langhorne Steamship Company.

hence was well established in Berlin when the war broke out.

His preliminary reports, it is understood, indicate that he is prepared to demonstrate that he wonders of the German military machine are not yet fully comprehended in this country. His information is said to be of a character warranting the conclusion that the Germans have not yet begun to fight.

Miss the Zevenbergen.

London, March 22.—A despatch from Amsterdam says that popular indignation is been aroused by an attack of a German aeroplane on the Dutch steamship Zevenbergen, which arrived at Ymulden yesterday. Two bombs were flung at the ship, but neither struck her.

The attack has had no offent.

His data furthermore will demonstrate in detail what has been suggested in Continued on Fourth Page.

Rockefeller, 75, in

Well Preserved, Says Physician, and With Golfing Enjoys Health.

gar, Sr., his physician, is in perfect physical condition and unusually well pre served for a man 75 years of age. Dr. Biggar said also that the elder Rocke feller is not angry with Cleveland and county commissioners, who are endeavoring to make Mr. Rockefeller pay taxes n a valuation of $311,000,000.

Dr. Biggar returned to-day from mond Beach, Fla., where he had been

GUARD'S SHOTS STOP SHIPS.

At 8 o'clock last night the Consoliship Newton, bound for Newbort News, made an effort to pass Quarantine without displaying signals. A blank shot from the Dolphin startled the residents of Rosebank and nearby places. The Newton stopped promptly and was boarded by neutrality officials from the boarded by neutrality officials from the parameters with residuals to the program of the parameters with the parameters of the parameters and the parameters are provided in the parameters. noarded by neutrality officials from the Narkeeta, who told the merchant skip-per that he should have observed the recently promulgated regulations and then let him go on.

Flier Aims Bombs at Relief Vessel

Five Missiles Barely Miss the Elkland, Taking Food to Belgium.

anied by Viola Toothil of in Washington decided that it would from Argentina for Belgian relief the steamship Elkland was saved from a German airman's bombs by skilful steer-

Belgian Relief Commission was flying Washington, March 22.-Major from the ship the aeroplane nimed five tache at the American Embassy in Ber- afternoon coming straight for us from lin has been made a matter of great the west, outlined against the pale blue mystery here, arrived in Washington sky. I took the wheel from a Chinese steersman. The daptain ordered all steersman. The daptain ordered all his afternoon.

Major Langhorne was accompanied bands below. He stood by me on the bridge. The aeroplane was flying 400

Likely to End Neutrality.

Carisrune, Stuttgars, Frankoon son and the being and even Munich.

"One may ask whether hydro-aeroplanes leaving the North Sea could not as the German machines." from New York, where he landed yes- bridge. The aeroplane was flying 400 erday, by Major-Gen. Leonard Wood, feet above us. When it was over our the State and War Departments by first bomb dropped on the port side.

information is said to be of a character warranting the conclusion that the Germans have not yet begun to fight.

The Major is in a position, it was said here to-day, to show that the American public has no idea of what the Germans have already done or what they are capable of doing in a military that they are capable of doing in a military that the special capable to the labor of the labor of

Fine Physical Shape ITALIANS SEE BAD FAITH IN VIENNA PLANS

Bockefeller, according to Dr. H. F. Big- Charge Austria With Duplicity and Secret War Preparations.

FREIGHT TRAINS TO GERMANY STOPPED

Another report is that the Government an alongside of the Santa Clara, found during the past six months and 220 Signor Raffaelle Nesti, who is sidered an authority on Italian fo

pean Powers will not cease to exist after and it can be taken for granted that the Allies of to-day will be the same to-morrow, consequently Italy should decide now whether to join England, Russia and France or Germany

"Italy has always insisted or acting the People for Revenge. afford to look on passively while the balance of power in this sea is altered. It is a fact that German interests in Turkey and in Asia Minor will cease from New 1078. Water he landed yes terday, by Major-Gen. Leonard Wood, commanding the Department of the East, and upon his arrival was excepted to the Ship described a semicircle. The State and War Departments by Gen. Wood.

EXPECTS ACTION SOON.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sty.

ATHENS, March 22.—The Cabinet is holding frequent meetings to discuss the foreign policy. There was a loud explosion which threw ment state that negotiations are afout lusions and conceit. The day when the same wind of attacks. It has become the foreign policy. SHE—SHEMES, SHE-MEASLES. SHE—SHEMES, SHE—SHEMES, SHE—SHEMES, SHE—SHEMES, SHE—Shemes, are continued in the same wind of attacks. It has become the foreign policy. Semething Fell, but Newsies Had as the German machines

SHE—, SHEMES, SHE—SHEMES, SHE—SHEMES, SHE—MEASLES. SHE—MEASLES. The foreign policy. Semething Fell, but Newsies Had as the German machines

SHE—, SHEMES, SHE—MEASLES. SHE—MEASLES. SHE—MEASLES. The foreign policy. Semething Fell, but Newsies Had Hard Time Naming It.

though there have been intimations in other official quarters that some embarrassing incidents may have arisen regarding Major Langhorne's department in connection with wireless messages.

There is every reason to believe, however, that the War Department is glad to have Major Langhorne return to Washington at this time and give the is still after.

British Steamer Remains Affort

and Crew Is Taken Off.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sts.

London, March 22.—The steamship tration camp and the occupants were conformed by the sentry. Apparently the challenge was disregarded, for the sentry fixed. The boat was either too near in the camp or else had give the loss till after.

The Concord is a small steamship of stances of the affair shows that the pilot of the boat had been warned before Mr. Montgomery in the hospital received while in Germany most unusual consideration by the German authorities and got more opportunities to observe the German operations than any other.

FLIER ATTACKS DUTCH SHIPS.

Mr. Montgomery in the hospital to-day and found that he is progressing favorable.

Loxpon, March 22.- More than 10,000 Aviator of Allies Makes Raid on Belgian Relief Commission, having had women have applied to the labor exchanges in response to the Government appeal. A majority of them have stated that been ordered to investigate the attack against the Zevenbergen.

A women have applied to the labor exchanges in response to the Government appeal. A majority of them have stated their wish to be employed in the ammunition factories.

A vinter of titles Makes Raid on the developed that a moving pletter concern had planned to take a fline torming forces narrowed their concern had planned to take a fline torming forces narrowed their concern had planned to take a fline torming forces narrowed their with his son, but that the necessary perspected in the storming forces narrowed their with his son, but that the necessary perspected in the storming forces narrowed their with his son, but that the necessary perspected in the storming forces narrowed their with his son, but that the necessary perspected in the storming forces narrowed their with his son, but that the necessary perspected in the storming forces narrowed their with his son, but that the necessary perspected in the storming forces narrowed their with his son, but that the necessary perspected in the storming forces narrowed their with his son, but that the necessary perspected in the storming forces narrowed their mind the hope of relief with his son, but that the necessary perspected in the storming forces narrowed their through through the storming force

SHOWING POSITION OF PRZEMYSL

ZEPPELIN IN NEW RAID SIGHTED; PARIS WARNED

affic between Italy and Dalmatia has German Airship Drops Three Bombs on Villers-Cotterets, 44 Miles Northeast of Capital, and Keeps on Toward the West.

> and the artillery barracks. Three sol Paris, March 22 .- An official con issued to-night says that late MRS. VANDERBILT SAW RAID.

It was announced that the Zeppelit westward. An alarm has been given in where all necessary precautions have been taken After the Zeppelin alarm was give same time," said Mrs. Vanderbilt tothe firemen were again in the streets is-

Paris, March 22.-The desire

Rage mingles with disappointment at Special Cable Despatch to The Sun.

London, March 22.—The Times prints conspicuously a summary of Italy's position, which, while abstaining from a direct statement, seems to imply the expectation that Italy is about to make a clear declaration of policy.

3 NATIONS READY FOR WAR.

Greece, Bulgaria and Rumania

6 Tup to the present we and our allies have abstained, through a spirit of chivalry and humanity, from striking at discoveries that have abstained, through a spirit of chivalry and humanity, from striking at discoveries that have abstained, through a spirit of chivalry and humanity, from striking at the excellent work of British availation corps is due to discoveries that have abstained, through a spirit of chivalry and humanity, from striking at the excellent work of British availation corps is due to discoveries that have abstained, through a spirit of chivalry and humanity, from striking at the excellent work of British availation corps is due to discoveries that have abstained, through a spirit of chivalry and humanity, from striking at the excellent work of British availation corps is due to discoveries that have abstained, through a spirit of chivalry and humanity, from striking at the excellent work of British availation corps is due to discoveries that have abstained, through a spirit of chivalry and humanity, from striking at the excellent work of British availation corps is due to discoveries that have demanded already that reprisals be taken against an enemy who has disregarded all the laws and conventions of the war. Nothing would be easier for our availates that the excellent work of British availation corps is due to discoveries that have demanded already that reprisals be taken against an enemy who has disregarded all the laws and conventions of the war. Nothing would be easier for our availates that the excellent work of British availation corps is due to discoveries that have demanded already that reprisals be taken against an enemy who has disregarded all the laws and conventions of the the foreign policy.

Newspapers supporting the Government state that negotiations are afoot forty feet into the air.

The aeroplane came again, this is a satern. I again gave the wheel conting and perhaps Rumania abandoning neutrality simultaneously.

The satern are again the satern are again the satern are again the satern are again. The day when bombs explode about their heads they will exchange confidence for panic. An aerial blockade will complete the maristime again. Time: Yesterday af

Analyst Makes Examination for Anthorities of Paris.

Paris, March 22—Public Presecutor Lescouve with his staff visited the places where bombs felt and is drawing up a report. A city analyst who collected the bombs which did not explode is making a chemical analysis of them. In a preliminary examination he found that most of the missles were intendiary, containing a mixture of phosphorus, tar and henzine, provided with a lighting contrivance consisting of a wick dipped in petroleum.

Waits for it. Per-rem-ees falls! Yeh, Jimmie. I got it. Per-rem-ees De T with bursts of the unusual silence. "Woh! Spessual! Final just out! Weems!! big fort capchured!"

"Haw, haw, lasten! Weems!! Hey. Alice Get ver Swedish uncle. He!! Show."

"Yuxtree" Waddeva read dere? Austrian Shemees falls! 50,000 capchired!"

"Here yah, get dat latest! Allies get battle of the Marne.

"Week voice "Paper, misther? De Russians got Sha—Sha—Oh, hell!" It several of those injured in the hospitals to-day. CALAIS RAID FAILS. French Shells Drive Zeppelin Airships Away.

Garrison of Galician Fortress Capitulates.

RELEASE 160,000 MEX FOR CRACOW ADVANCE

Balloon With Valuable

AUSTRIANS SAY THEY

Arms and Ammunition Also Disposed of, Vienna Re-

NEW ENGLISH WAR FLIER.

they did no damage.

She was awakened Sunday

chine Outclasses Germans German airman's bombs by skilful steering and the timely arrival of a British destroyer.

EAFECTS ACTION COUNTY the escape of the declaration of the escape of the escape bombs explode about their royal and will exchange confidence for panic. An aerial blockade will complete the maritime and economic blockade."

The Deputies from Paris have begun on the street at various news stands.

The Deputies from Paris have begun on the street at various news stands.

A Te Deum was delebrated. an independent inquiry into the Zeppelin raid with a view to advising the Chamber what further precautions seem to be necessary to guard assainst future onslaughts, and the military authorities have let it be known that German clifford in the street at various news stands. Six inch headlines read: "Przemys! Falls." Newsboys see the long expected crisis has arrived. Consternation. Protection of the capitulation came, which was all the capitulation came thorities have let it be known that German visitors will not escape so lightly disgust and similar words. Derision next time. That there will be further from the mob. Boys take bunches of At the same time the civic according to t

BOMBS INCENDIARY.

There yah, wuxtree! Big fortress and the mile ary commanders. With "Y'extraw" Big lates! Just out! (Looks despairingly at headline, waits for it.) Per-rem-ees falle! Yeh, churches of the Russian capital recket.

the wick dipped in petroleum.

President and Mme. Poincare visited fell, mister:

Weak voice: "Paper, misther? De Russians got Sha—Sha—Oh, hell! It Daily Mail thus describes the capital fell, mister: Some one discovers "Pshay-mish-l" is lation: correct. Joy. Shouts. Unusual noise Somebody buys a paper.

> WHITE HOUSE BARS "LINCOLN." The end of Przemast came au-So Movie Picture of "War Presi-driver turn back.

It developed that a moving picture meter.

RUSSIANSTAKE PRZEMYSL; END OF LONG SIEGE

30,000 Taken Prisoners as Officers Tried to Escape in Documents.

DESTROYED FORTRESS

port Declares.

"I was back up stairs and looked from event of the surr a window. It was then I saw the Zeppelin about a mile overhead. It dropped a trail of sparks but no bombs in our next time. That there will be further attacks is generally believed, the consensus being that the Sunday morning excursion was merely a trial trip preparatory to a much larger attack in which dirigibles will probably be accompanied by aeroplanes.

Hard Time Naming It. eral army headq arters, attended

At the same take and tary population of Petrograd went wild ing pedestrian traffic. Ominous and unprecedented silence. Papers held out without a shrick.

Then all along the line with varypeople floundered through the streets. "Here yah, wuxtree! Big fortress shouting and cheering for the Czar CALAIS. March 22.—Zeppelins attempted a raid on this city yesterday at about the same time the attack on Paris was made.

The sound of the motors warned the military authorities that the German aircraft were near at hand again, and when they were sighted such a half of shells met them that they were forced to turn back without having had a chance to drop a single bomb.

BOMBARD MULHEIM.

So Movie Picture of "War President was placed in the hill, 100 feet high overshood to the bold of the military extension in the end side. Having secured this the lineshals lined the place at the methy of their ling guins. The decay and security and with his son, little Tad, was approaching the Executive Mansion.

The occupants were treated with scant couriesy, however, for they had scarcely passed the White House gate when a policeman planted himself in the middle of the driveway and gruffly hade the driver turn back.